Great idea. Maybe this will slow them down. This is very distracting and I thank you, Bob, for showing us some common ground. I can't believe how they continue. I have heard from our two neighbors who are thinking they should unsubscribe to ND. What a shame. My feeling is these two individuals would not be doing this in private, but prefer to have an audience of readers. I'm seriously considering doing the same.

Dustin,
 Suggest it might be worth your putting something like this on NextDoor, given all Dan's putting-down of the fundraising.

All You Pool Lovers,
 We need your help to secure the future of our unique ACBC pool. We know our abilities to donate vary, but we don't care how big or small, we just want as many of us as possible to be part of our success. Now is the time to step up and pledge what you can to this important community effort. Please join by pledging here today, or if not today, then hopefully tomorrow.

Here's how. Just email to me, Dustin Frederick, at _____(email address)____, the following:

- 1) Your name, mailing address, and phone
- 2) How much you pledge to give
- 3) Whether you wish your pledge to remain anonymous when posting pledges on NextDoor.

That's it, pretty simple. And so we all can see the pot grow, I will periodically publish here on Next Door the list of contributors by name (or as anonymous) and amount.

FYI, the pledges will NOT be called in until the pool rehab plan and its total cost is determined. We will give a 15 to 30 day window for sending in your check to the club treasurer, who will deposit it go into a special account only to be spent on the pool revitalization.

One other small request: If you know of folks who might miss seeing this post, please do try to make them aware of our pledge drive and where to send their pledge.
