Gwyn,
I'm not surprised. They really do want to play by their rules not by the rules we all want to use. It's been that way since 2001 since just before M King moved into the neighborhood. I do not have any faith in their integrity and expect them to be as difficult as they can be. I do not want to give them any wiggle room.

I asked Jean for a determination as to why my name was not included in the list of candidates for the ballot. No reply or even a recognition of my request.

It is quite easy to prove their bad faith based on the law, their refusal to obtain a legal opinion - Carol has that documented, their failure to provide the records to the attorney for the legal opinion they did obtain (DOCS REQUESTED) and the emails and posts we do have, and Jean's and Karen's refusal to respond with documents etc (for over a year) and the exclusion of Board members from the process. Very easy to show bad faith and recoup attorney's fees but we need more proof from the doc requests to make it easier.
