I have never dealt with such controlling people in a position of perceived power (except in my business experience). We'll see what happens. Karen just sent me a note that all applications have to be in by noon on the 15th...for some reason. The committee meets at 5:00. They love rules.

Uhhh, per Karen's "Gwyn applied and is not qualified due to not sitting out her removal per the bylaws"? What does to not sit out mean? She opted not to contest? She forced her way into a seat at the table?

Second, her removal was not compliant with the bylaws at that time, I think. Dustin can be definitive than I on that. If I am right, there is another item...OMG these dummkopfs.

Hello Karen,

Regarding the issue of Gwyn's application for nomination to ACBC Board being invalid...I think you are mistaken. You are specifically thinking that the waiting period applied because Gwyn was removed from the board, however that was a recent bylaw change that cannot be applied retroactively. I believe we have to consider her application for nomination as valid.

Please notify me when the Nominating Committee will be meeting next week and I will be happy to attend.

The committee will need to confirm by reading and assessing the bylaws and records which I will need to bring but on the surface..

Gwyn applied and is not qualified due to not sitting out her removal per the bylaws

Dustin is likely qualified pending us checking his service and payment status

What is it you want to do? There is nothing much left, Bob held all of the recruitment meetings earlier in the year. Next week, on the 15th we say "here are the applicants we have received". Then we determine who is eligible - dues and assessments paid, hasn't over served, has sat out if was removed. Then it is done and turned over for ballot creation. Am I missing something?

Today we have one qualified applicant, one not qualified applicant and four open seats.

Jean,
I took very seriously your appointment of me to head the nominating committee this year after Bob retired from this position. I was looking forward to full participation and presentation of a slate. I am disappointed that you have changed your mind 10 days before the deadline.

I'd appreciate your comments.

Suzy

Committee

I have never seen a folder or any information about the Nominating Committee except the Nominating forms which are at the shelter. Karen has the applications as the bylaws require that they go to the Secretary. Karen will chair the committee this year. The 15th of August is the cutoff for nominations so that would be when the committee would meet. I am not part of that committee per the bylaws.

Hi Jean,
Do you have the folder for the nominating committee to hand off to me tomorrow afternoon? I'll be coming in from Seattle and could pick it up around 5 PM. Hope that works for you. I'll try to get it all together by Saturday so the committee can meet next week.
