Subject: Hi Chris, since Bob was not at the meeting

He copied me on your mail. The Board refused, after I asked, to speak about the slate of nominees. The slate must be out 30 days before our annual meeting on Oct 26, so must already be in the mail. We need to discuss with the insurance attorney asap when the attorney contacts you, as I am certain the Board will be in contempt and not list everyone for the other bogus reasons one Board member told us, or will say something like they can't elect new directors because of the restraint. They will thereby ensure their continuation on the Board which is exactly the result we want NOT to occur. This will have to be addressed at the hearing.
