Don't bother contacting anyone at Nextdoor. That is Karen's little software baby. She is involved with it, why do you think she put it up for the cove...

I think we need to find out three things. 1) If any of these bylaw changes are needed to remain a General Use pool. And 2) what can we send out to non 12 month residents so we can either vote for them or should it be a proxy. 3) What we can do if someone is editing others emails on ND. These can all be important.

All---I suggest we just hold onto the ballots re removal. I did not sign mine yet---but may--- if things don't change. I think we should have them ready to deliver at the annual meeting.

According to Karen---the information that went out did not have a ballot in it for a dues increase or an assessment or a vote on the pool. I have not received mine yet.

I posted some comments yesterday evening on ND re the proposed bylaws changes and Karen promptly took the post down--- because she did not agree with them. So much for free speech and a willingness to accept community input.

I will wait and look at the packet of information and then talk about strategy for the annual meeting.

I don't know that the new Board will accept the idea but I am going to propose that we seek the assistance of a mediator to facilitate how to move forward re the pool.

Hi All,

So anyways, I seem to have acquired all of ballot 2 here that we are likely to get. So they count up to 48 I believe. Made photocopies. So now what? Nothing or something? I assume the Board found out about this (no surprise) by last Sunday or Monday – I mean it was being widely distributed after all and Raymond posted about it on Monday I think. So, what do we want to do? How about clipping them to a string and decorate the pool outside wall with them like Tibetan peace flags?

Dustin, are you aware of any pool ballot improvements on what went out? We can always hope – right?

All---I spoke at length today with Elizabeth and gave general background information ---from a very neutral perspective. Ultimately I told her that it was my opinion that we needed to bring a professional mediator to help resolve this issue. It is very common to have a mediator assist with neighborhood disputes and I think it would be helpful for us also.

I am going to make a formal recommendation to the board---on the record.

Respecting what must be their concern I would like to call Elizabeth and refer her to the web site (thanks Dustin) for now. Not to Next Door but the new Web Site. I will tell her that this is a very sensitive time and we do not want to exacerbate any further disagreement at this time.

She is new in the area not familiar with our location. I thought we could show her the pool and then meet at someone's home for the interview. Gwyn and Dustin could call in. She said the deadline for editorials is Monday AM and encouraged us to send one in. She also asked for any written material we could give her that would help her to write a well informed article.
