Alex,

I'll call you later today. Just wanted you to know we are thinking about you. I hope you are able to rest and relax being home with Ranelle. Of course the pool misses your touch and input, but there is no hurry for you to become involved until you feel up to it. I just wanted you to know that we will celebrate when you feel better. Nate and I think about you every day. Let us know if we can help in any way.

Just to keep you updated on some of the input we are getting. The following is a letter from Harry. Next meeting is Thursday at 2:00 at the Shelter.
